FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

United Bankers' Bank Welcomes Jordan Marks as Iowa Correspondent Banking Officer

Richfield, Minn. – Jim Amundson, CEO of United Bankers' Bank (UBB), is pleased to welcome Jordan Marks to UBB's Correspondent Banking team.

In his new role, Marks will develop and strengthen relationships with community banks throughout Iowa. He brings more than 13 years of banking experience to UBB, including seven years in commercial banking.

"We are excited to welcome Jordan to our correspondent sales team. With a passion for community development coupled with his commercial banking experience, he brings an unparalleled value to our community bank customers," commented Jay Syverson, Senior Vice President, Regional Sales Manager.

Marks earned a bachelor's degree in history from Central College in Pella, Iowa. He currently serves as treasurer of the 5 by 80 Golf & Country Club Board of Directors, where he helps oversee the organization's financial health, budgeting, compliance, ethical standards and regulatory requirements.

Jordan will be based in Stuart, Iowa.
